ABSTRACT

This directory lists cooperating library organizations and networks in the United States which engage in cooperative, interinstitutional activities beyond the scope of traditional interlibrary loan services and reciprocal borrowing. Criteria for inclusion, survey methodology, and entry format are explained. Entries identify the address, phone number, director, operational status, and activities of each organization. Separate indexes organize the listings by state, acronym, and activity. (FM)

"The purpose of the Center shall be to collect and disseminate statistics and other data related to education in the United States and in other nations. The Center shall . . . collect, collate, and, from time to time, report full and complete statistics on the conditions of education in the United States; conduct and publish reports on specialized analyses of the meaning and significance of such statistics; . . . and review and report on education activities in foreign countries."--Section 406(b) of the General Education Provisions Act, as amended (20 U.S.C. 1221e-1).

FOREWORD

During the years 1976 through 1979 the National Center for Education Statistics conducted a survey of cooperative library organizations. This first national survey of these organizations was conducted in three phases. Phase I consisted of developing a universe, Phase II of pretesting the survey instrument, and Phase III of conducting the survey. The results are presented in two publications of which this directory is the first.

The information for each entry includes organization name (Acronym), address (including the Zip code), name of director of operations, title of director, telephone number with area code, operational year, whether computerized, frequency of operation, number of paid staff, annual operating cost, and teletype number.

We would like to express our appreciation to the officials of the organizations whose responses made the Directory possible and to the State Library Agencies who assisted in the data collection and in the resolution of inconsistencies.

METHODOLOGY

The survey of Library Networks and Cooperative Library Organizations, conducted by The National Center for Education Statistics (NCES), established a universe of cooperating organizations to be surveyed. This initial effort necessitated sending survey forms to the library agencies in the 50 States and Washington, D.C. Each library agency provided identifying information for the library cooperating organizations located in their area of responsibility. Preliminary to the universe survey, extensive research of library publications was performed in order to determine the size and scope of the universe.

Subsequent to the universe survey, nine onsite visits were made to a representative cross section of library cooperating organizations within the United States. The results of these visits led to the development and conduct of a pretest survey using 5 percent of the universe. The final survey was conducted using the entire universe of over 1,000 organizations.

Based upon the survey criteria, the final universe was comprised of 620 organizations. Of this total, 608 were included in the statistical report, which will be a separate publication. The remaining 12 organizations were considered to have met the survey criteria but, because conditions such as not being fully operational during the survey period, reorganization, etc., comprehensive data were not provided with the survey response. These 12 organizations have been included in the directory for informational purposes.
